Exploding from within exploding from without

I know the wrong I have done
But I cannot heal your wounds
You don't let me come near you
(So) I can't touch your wounded heart
You don't give me a last chance
To let my words sink in

I'm exploding from within
I'm exploding from without
I can't tell you what I feel
(And) you can't feel what I tell
You understand what I say
But don't feel it with your heart

I cannot give you feelings
Step by step (or) drop by drop
Oh my love is still alive
But can't give life back to yours
I still have a burning love
But not you to give it to

I'm exploding from within
I'm exploding from without

My love's so strong (and) so hot
That it is not warming up
But burning down burning down
Me and the woman (that) I love
You're the drug I'm addicted to I'll let you go to get you back

I'm exploding from within
I'm exploding from without
I can't tell you what I feel
(And) you can't feel what I tell
You understand what I say
But don't feel it with your heart
