Super-Luca, 6 years already!

[Chorus]
Luca, Luca, our winter sun!
At six years old, our hero, number one.
With a laugh that sounds like a victory,
You're already writing your own history.

Six years today, hooray, hooray!
A happy birthday, dear Luca, we say!
May your party be wild and full of cheer,
With hugs and Nutella all through the year!

[1]
Born an Aquarius, so creative and bright,
You're the image of Kris, your dad, alright!
A mini-him, sporty and full of fun,
Out of the bed as soon as the day has begun.

Hockey, basketball, BMX, gym or ski,
You're living life fast, with high energy.
And though your body is a fortress so strong,
Your heart is a flower where kindness belongs.

Under the table, your first world was born,
With Pina, your partner, from night until morn.
Her tail was the help for your very first stride,
A friendship so deep with nothing to hide.
A hundred cats is the dream that you show,
Into the wild as an explorer you go.
A hero by day, Spidey or Batman in flight,
Wrestling with Daddy, the strongest at night!

[Chorus]
Luca, Luca, our winter sun!
At six years old, our hero, number one.
With a laugh that sounds like a victory,
You’re already writing your own history.

Six years today, hooray, hooray!
A happy birthday, dear Luca, we say!
May your party be wild and full of cheer,
With hugs and Nutella all through the year!

[3]
Then there are the girls who live in your heart:
Emi, big sister, playing a motherly part,
And Matti, your cousin, your love from day one,
You’ve protected her since her life has begun.

With Lotti, Matti's sister, the bond is so true,
The "Four Scheeris" gang, through and through.

Thanks to Mom Aija, from the land of the cold,
Three languages already, a sight to behold!
You’re shining so bright, a light in the dark,
Winning all hearts with your magical spark!

[4]
At school, all your friends are calling your name,
You’re doing so well, at the top of the game.
"Crazy Monkey," the laughs, the wrestling with Dad,
Then falling asleep, the best day you have had.

For your six years, our wish is quite plain:
Keep that bright fire and never refrain.
Pizza, Nutella, and games wild and free,
Hugs and more laughter, as much as can be!

[Final Chorus]
Luca, Luca, our winter sun!
At six years old, our hero, number one.
With a laugh that sounds like a victory,
You’re already writing your own history.

Six years today, hooray, hooray!
A happy birthday, dear Luca, we say!
May your party be wild and full of cheer,
With hugs and Nutella all through the year!
